

THERE'S ONE REALLY big TO DO,
before YOU SAY "I do."

MARRIAGE LICENCE APPLICATION

Congratulations, we're so happy for you! Getting married is an exciting time in your life, and we want to help make sure your perfect day goes smoothly for you. Before you walk down the aisle, one important thing you'll need is a marriage licence.

HOW DO I APPLY?

To apply for your marriage licence, come in to an AMA centre with your fiancé and bring the required pieces of identification listed below. Your licence is valid for 90 days from the date of issue, and only in the province of Alberta.

When you come in, please remember to bring:

- Your AMA membership card — this is an AMA/CAA/AAA member service
- One piece of personal identification for both applicants with your current legal names (e.g. a valid driver's licence, valid passport, valid Alberta provincial ID card)
- Personal information for both applicants including:
 - Date and place of birth
 - Religious denomination
 - Mother's legal name (including maiden name) and place of birth
 - Father's legal name and place of birth
- If you or your fiancé is:
 - Divorced, final divorce document such as Certificate of Divorce or Decree Absolute is needed
 - Under 18 years of age, parental consent is required — ask us for details

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A MARRIAGE LICENCE AND A MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE?

- Your marriage licence shows you meet the requirements to get married in Alberta
- Your marriage certificate proves that you are legally married

AND NOW, TO YOUR HAPPILY EVER AFTER...

Your perfect day was absolutely perfect, and now you're back from your honeymoon...ready to enjoy your new journey together. Start by ordering your marriage certificate and getting your personal documents in order. To order your marriage certificate, simply follow these three easy steps:

Step Three: Order your marriage certificate at any AMA centre, or mail us your completed Vital Statistics Request form.
